

Reproduction Agreement

1. All requests for reproductions of materials require completing a Reproduction Agreement and full payment before copies will be released. Permission for reproduction is contingent on the completion of this form, is limited to the patron, and is non-transferrable.

2. All reproductions are provided for a one time, non-exclusive basis. The WVRHC does not grant open-ended permission for future uses, and never grants exclusive rights.

3. In instances when WVRHC materials are used in publications, films, or exhibits, etc....

Credit to the institution must be given using the following credit line:

West Virginia and Regional History Center
WVU Libraries

- For print publications, crediting of each item at its point of use is mandatory in all cases, unless an exception is granted in writing.
- For audio-visual productions, credit can be listed with other sources of illustrations. For printed material accompanying audio-visual productions, credit at the point where the illustration is discussed.
- For exhibitions, credit within the exhibit area.

4. The WVRHC will be given one complimentary copy of any publication or audio-visual production in which our materials appear. Exceptions may be made for productions of exceptional expense, but must be agreed to and noted in writing.

5. Copyright Concerns: The WVRHC does not hold the copyright for many of the items in its collections. The WVRHC cannot, does not, and will not warrant or represent that it owns all rights to materials within the WVRHC. Responsibility for determining if additional permissions are needed from rights holders for use of materials and for securing permissions in regard to matters including but not limited to copyright and invasion of privacy is assumed by the patron requesting the materials.

Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, archives and libraries are authorized to furnish a photocopy or reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

6. In providing reproductions of materials, the WVRHC does not surrender its right to publish them or to provide reproductions of the same materials to others who request them.

7. Patrons may not copy or permit others to make copies from reproductions of WVRHC materials or from any facsimiles derived from those reproductions.

8. Patrons may not sell, donate or otherwise transfer reproductions of materials to other individuals or organizations without written permission from the WVRHC.

9. The WVRHC reserves the right to: limit the amount of material copied; to restrict the reproduction or use of rare or valuable material; to make special quotations on material involving unusual difficulty in copying; and to charge higher fees to commercial organizations.

In requesting permission to obtain reproductions of materials from the West Virginia and Regional History Center, the patron assumes all liability. The patron agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the West Virginia and Regional History Center, West Virginia University Libraries, its agents, and employees from and against any and all claims, actions, or costs involving infringement of rights of ownership, infringement of copyright, or invasion of privacy that may result from the patron's use of the images.

I acknowledge that I have received, read, and understand the Reproduction Agreement as it appears on this form, and agree to comply with all the rules listed herein, and that violation of the rules is grounds for revocation of permission to use the WVRHC.
